WINE LIST

If one glass of wine is good for you...
Just imagine what a whole bottle could do!

All vintages are subject to change due to availability

BUBBLES BY THE GLASS

Envious of the rich wines from their fellow countrymen in the Burgundy, the Champenois of the north were trying their very best to produce wine of same acclaimed quality. However, the bad weather made it hard and fermentation made all their wines sparkling. The poor Benedictine monk Dom Pérignon spent his days to get rid of these bad bubbles. Fortunately for us he did not succeed. Cheers!

Watenshi

The world's most exclusive gin made by The Cambridge Distillery. Distilling at half the pressure found on top of Mount Everest and at a temperature lower than the coldest day recorded at the South Pole, The Cambridge Distillery has been able to capture the "angel's share" of their Japanese Gin which would otherwise be lost to evaporation – yielding just 15ml per distillation. The result is a gin of unparalleled intensity and complexity, an expression of refined elegance which has previously been the preserve of the finest single malts and significantly aged cognacs. Only four batches with total 22 bottles have ever been produced.

however,
the first time it was mentioned
in writing was in Poland, which mother Russia does not agree on,
obviously!

RUM

In 1600's Barbados, Rum was described as "Rumbullion, alias Kill-Divil, which is made of sugar canes distilled, a hot, hellish, and terrible liquor".

Terrible not at all, is what we think and certainly also not the Royal British Navy, which replaced their good old English ale with this Rumbullion. Let us be Pirates once more and taste this hellish liquid.

WHISKY

This versatile liquid has more stories than a book can tell.

It is said to be invented by the Irish,
brought to the English and perfected by the Scottish.

The American friend likes to add an E to the word and some corn or rye to their Whiskey.

The only thing we know is that it should be drank by everyone.

Cheerio to this!

COGNAC

This luxurious spirit of the bourgeoisie can only be produced in the village of Cognac in the Department of Charante or Charente-Maritim in, of course, France.

A great tradition and heritage embodied by this grape distillate delivers a certain kind of seriousness.

Hence, please enjoy it responsibly and do not spill a drop!

ARMAGNAC

The most underestimated spirits category of them all, unfortunately.
This truly traditional and amazing brandy
